

QUOTING THE PRESS

"Those who have not yet treated themselves to the music of Mose Scarlett have missed a warm and enjoyable experience. Exposure should breed appreciation."

Canadian Musician Magazine

"Scarlett is aptly billed as a 'crooner' and 'dealer in songs of the heart'. He has a velvet voice steeped in rich tones that he feeds into some of the most melodious music ever written."

The Ottawa Citizen, Ottawa, ON

"His opening notes hit me in the gut the way those old elevators did when they dropped six floors."

The Barnacle Island Journal, Salt Spring Island, B.C.

"As Scarlett was playing a full moon rose above the bay and it wasn't hard to imagine yourself in a dance pavilion of 50 years ago."

The Globe and Mail – Toronto, ON

"He delivers the banter between songs with a sense of humour that has endeared him to audiences on the...circuit he travels."

The London Free Press – London, ON

"Scarlett knows how to tap a song's feeling."

The Spectator, Hamilton, ON

"...a deceptively excellent guitarist."

Queen's Journal – Kingston, ON

"(He) enraptured the crowd into an hypnotic state. ...Scarlett ignites with his style, stirring the fires in the hearts of blues fans."

Arts Beat – Hamilton, ON

"Mose Scarlett's velvet baritone could smooth the scales off an armadillo."

Sun Times - Owen Sound, ON

"...his knack for bringing feeling and depth into old and new numbers is a welcome change."

Niagara Falls Review, Niagara Falls, ON

"He almost seems magically to play both rhythm and lead simultaneously ...and (his) low pitched voice...and easy-going humour enchanted the audience."

The Spectator – Hamilton, ON

"Scarlett is a veteran performer and it shows on stage."

The Whig Standard – Kingston, ON

"Mose Scarlett... a seasoned artist, whose relaxed style and excellent guitar work has made him popular wherever he has appeared."

Stockport Advertiser- Stockport, England

"Warning: Audiences must be advised that Mose Scarlett is capable, with his deep baritone voice, of crooning out renditions ... that will bring out soft white tissues to weeping eyes."

The Dundas Star Journal, Dundas, ON

"he'll have you pulling up that piece of rug a little closer to the fire ... for an evening of warm standards spanning six decades"

The Ottawa Citizen, Ottawa, ON

"Mose Scarlett, a veteran of club, radio, television and festival performances, with his unique blend of jazz, blues and ragtime stylings, and "deep rich-toned voice", is a must for blues and ragtime fans of romantic and nostalgic gems."

The Gazette, Montreal, Quebec

"He was easily the finest vocalist at the festival"

The Daily Mercury, QLD, Australia

"His ramblings between the songs were almost as entertaining as the songs themselves."

Perth Courier, Perth, ON

"Canadian... veteran Mose Scarlett charmed his way into the hearts of festival-goers with his signature whiskey-stained voice, nimble fingerpicking and warm humour, while negotiating his way through the vintage American songbook of the first third of the last century."

The Record, Kitchener-Waterloo, ON
